Franklin Sensors Privacy Policy

Protecting Your Personal Information

We take your privacy very seriously. Franklin Sensors collects no personal or company information about you unless you choose to provide that information to us. Any personally identifiable data about customers or website visitors that may be obtained is stored securely and used only for the purpose for which it is provided to us. If you have any questions about this privacy statement, Franklin Sensors practices, or feel that your privacy has been compromised, please contact us at info@franklinsensors.com.

Information Tracked

The operating system for the Franklin Sensors website (www.franklinsensors.com) may automatically record some general information about your visit, such as:

- The Internet domain for your Internet service provider, such as "company.com" or "service.ca" and the IP address of the computer accessing the website, such as "ppp-55";
- The type of browser (such as "Chrome version x" or "Internet Explorer version x") you are using;
- The type of operating system you are using (such as Macintosh, Unix, or Windows);
- The date and time you visit our site and the web pages that you visit on our site, along with the address of the previous website you were visiting, if you linked to us from another website.
- If you are logged into this site, your user name will be recorded along with the date and time of your visit, which pages you viewed, etc.

Franklin Sensors uses this information for statistical analysis, to help us make our site more useful to visitors. Franklin Sensors uses incoming and outgoing website traffic data to help diagnose problems with our server and to administer our website. We also use it to gather broad demographic information about our users in general. We may combine demographic information supplied by a user at registration time with site usage data to provide profiles, in aggregate form, about our users and their preferences as it relates to Franklin Sensors.

Cookies

The Franklin Sensors website may use "cookies" that identify you as a return visitor. A cookie is a piece of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then store the cookie on your hard drive. So, when you come back to visit Franklin Sensors website again, information can be tailored to suit your individual preferences. The goal is to save you time and provide you with a more meaningful visit and to measure website activity. The contents of our session cookies are not linked, shared or associated in any way with personal information that you may have supplied to us or made available elsewhere. These session cookies cannot be used by any other Web servers, and are new and unique for each visit. All Browsers allow you to disable cookie collection if you wish, or inform you when a cookie is being stored on your hard drive. Specifically, we use cookies in order to allow members to access features without logging into the website each time.

Confidentiality

Franklin Sensors will not reveal any member's identity to marketers. It is solely at Franklin Sensors member's discretion if he or she chooses to provide personally identifiable information to a marketer by making a purchase, requesting additional information, or communicating directly with the company or organization after visiting its web site.

Security

Franklin Sensors has made a substantial investment in the latest server, database, backup, and firewall technologies to protect the information assets of the Franklin Sensors website. These technologies are deployed as part of a sophisticated security architecture and protocol. All data resides in a tightly controlled, secure data center. These investments mean that information about the identity and preferences of individual members is never accessible to anyone outside Franklin Sensors. This website takes every precaution to protect our users' information. We do not voluntarily allow your e-mail address or any other personal information to be displayed anywhere on our website. Only Franklin Sensors website administrators who need the information to perform a specific are granted access to personally identifiable information. All administrators' access is password-protected. They must re-enter their password to re-gain access to your information. If you have any questions about the security at our website, you can send an email to info@franklinsensors.com
